Handbook of Research on Promoting Higher-Order Skills and Global Competencies in Life and Work Keengwe, Jared 2018-07-06 Global awareness and competency has become an essential part of higher education and professional development. Expanding beyond the traditional ideas of learning and education, it is important to provide research that will help students prepare for the global future. The Handbook of Research on Promoting Higher-Order Skills and Global Competencies in Life and Work is a pivotal reference source that provides vital research on the intersection of life and work skills in higher education and professional development. While highlighting topics such as research engagement, learning assessment, and multicultural competence, this publication explores the preparation of twenty-first century learners, as well as the methods of promoting critical and creative thinking. This book is ideally designed for educators, academicians, education administrators, researchers, and upper-level students seeking current research on global knowledge and skills in contemporary education and organizations.

CAEC Study Guide 2026-2027 Robert M. Hashley 2026-04-29 Ready to earn your Canadian Adult Education Credential and open the door to new opportunities? Whether you're returning to education after years away or sitting for the CAEC for the first time, this is the most thorough, exam-aligned study guide available for 2026 and 2027. The CAEC Study Guide 2026-2027 by Robert M. Hashley covers every subject tested on the Canadian Adult Education Credential Exam — Mathematics, Reading Comprehension, Writing, Science, and Social Studies — in one complete, easy-to-follow resource. No tutors needed. No separate books required. Everything is here. Inside this comprehensive guide, you will find: Mathematics Part I — whole numbers, integers, fractions, decimals, percentages, order of operations, and number sense Mathematics Part II — algebraic expressions and equations, linear relationships, geometric shapes, and perimeter, area, and volume Mathematics Part III — statistics, probability, data interpretation from tables and graphs, and real-world problem solving Reading comprehension strategies — identifying main ideas, making inferences, analyzing author's purpose and tone, and vocabulary in context Writing skills — essay structure and planning, developing strong arguments, using evidence effectively, and grammar, mechanics, and style Science Part I — cell structure and function, human body systems, genetics and heredity, and ecology and environmental science Science Part II — matter and chemical reactions, energy, motion and forces, earth's systems, and space and astronomy Social Studies Part I — Canadian government and citizenship, federal, provincial and municipal structures, rights and responsibilities, and civic participation Social Studies Part II — Canadian geography, population, cultural diversity, key historical events, and Indigenous peoples and heritage Social Studies Part III — economic systems, global trade, media literacy, critical thinking, and contemporary Canadian issues 3 full-length practice tests with comprehensive answer explanations to reinforce your understanding and build real exam confidence Guidance on exam structure, scoring, passing requirements, and how to study effectively from day one Every chapter ends with a focused summary and review questions so you always know where you stand before moving forward. The practice tests are designed to mirror the actual CAEC exam — so by the time you sit for the real thing, nothing catches you off guard. Your credential is within reach. This guide gives you the clearest path to it. Study smarter. Test stronger. Earn your credential.
