The Calvary Road and Be Filled Now Roy Hession 2017-11-24 The Calvary Road is the British evangelist, Roy Hession's best known book. It is a simple practical exposition of the essential role and the fruit of humility and repentance in the Christian life. It has changed lives and ministries. The chapters are: Brokenness; Cups Running Over; The Way of Fellowship; The Highway of Holiness; The Dove and the Lamb; Revival in the Home; The Mote and the Beam; Are You Willing to be a Servant?; The Power of the Blood of the Lamb; and Protesting Our Innocence? Christians of all persuasions appreciate the importance of being filled with the Holy Spirit. The Hessions write "the apostolic injunction, 'Be filled with the Spirit' (Eph. 5. 18) still stands binding on every believer, and he ignores it at the peril of missing the fruitfulness and joy which such fullness brings." This book describes the person of the Holy Spirit and how and why the Christian is to be filled with the Spirit.

Arrows of Victory: God's Work of Revival, Restoration, and Release Jamison Work 2014-08-26 Arrows of Victory is the account of God's reviving work among the people of Candies Creek Baptist Church in April and May of 2011 when the manifest presence of God settled among them for an unforgettable, transformative, and empowering six weeks. Over a period of 42 days the congregation held daily prayer meetings, approximately 40 worship gatherings that often extended more than three hours, baptized a half-dozen new believers, received more than 24 hours of individual public confession and repentance of sin, confessed and turned from six sins of which the church family was corporately guilty, rejoiced in the healing of relationships and families, and experienced the renewing grace of God in dozens of life-changing ways.

The Calvary Road and We Would See Jesus Roy Hession 2014-02-13 Roy Hession was a British evangelist and writer. Hession was heavily influenced by the power of openness and repentance. Hession's most famous books are The Calvary Road and We Would See Jesus. The Calvary Road discusses personal sanctification through being filled with the Holy Spirit. The book explains the sins that are hard for Christians to see and how these sins hinder their sanctification. The Calvary Road Roy and Revel Hession 2016-02-19 Excerpt from the Preface: "In April, 1947, several missionaries came at my invitation to an Easter Conference which I was organising. I invited them to come as speakers, because I had heard that they had been experiencing Revival in their field for a number of years, and I was interested in Revival. What they had to say was very different from much of what I had associated with Revival. It was very simple and very quiet. As they unfolded their message and gave their testimonies, I discovered that I was the neediest person in the conference and was far more in need of being revived than I had ever realised. That discovery, however, only came slowly to me. Being myself one of the speakers, I suppose I was more concerned about others' needs than my own. As my wife and others humbled themselves before God and experienced the cleansing of the precious Blood of Jesus, I found myself left somewhat high and dry--dry just because I was high. I was stumbled by the simplicity of the message, or rather the simplicity of what I had to do to be revived and filled with the Spirit. When others at the end of the conference testified of how Jesus had broken them at His Cross and filled their hearts to overflowing with His Holy Spirit, I had no such testimony."

The Calvary Road Revel and Roy Hession 2013-07-04 I am sure from my own experience, as well as from what we have seen in the ranks of our Mission these last three years, that what the authors tell us about in these pages is one of God's vital words to His worldwide church today. For long I had regarded revival only from the angle of some longed for, but very rare, sudden outpouring of the Spirit on a company of people. I felt that there was a missing link somewhere. Knowing of the continuing revival on a certain mission field, and because it was continuing and not merely sudden and passing, I long felt that they had a further secret we needed to learn. Then the chance came for heart-to-heart fellowship with them, first through one of our own missionary leaders whose life and ministry had been transformed by a visit to that field, and then through conferences with some of their missionaries on furlough and finally through the privilege of having two of the native brethren living for six months at our headquarters. From them I learned and saw that revival is first personal and immediate. It is the constant experience of any simplest Christian who "walks in the light," but I saw that walking in the light means an altogether new sensitiveness to sin, a calling things by their proper name of sin, such as pride, hardness, doubt, fear, self-pity, which are often passed over as merely human reaction. It means a readiness to "break" and confess at the feet of Him who was broken for us, for the Blood does not cleanse excuses, but always cleanses sin, confessed as sin; then revival is just the daily experience of a soul full of Jesus and running over. Further, we are beginning to learn, as a company of Christ's witnesses, that the rivers of life to the world do not flow out in their fulness through one man, but through the body, the team. Our brokenness and openness must be two-way, horizontal as well as vertical, with one another as with God. We are just beginning to experience in our own ranks that team work in the Spirit is one of the keys to revival, and that we have to learn and practice the laws of a living fellowship. I need not say more, as Roy Hession and his wife expound the whole matter. But we have seen God at work in our midst. I could name half-a-dozen of our workers, several of them leaders, in whose lives there has been a new spiritual revolution. Then rivulets of blessing in some of our individual lives have been merging in a larger stream. God has been giving us times as a company when "as they prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together, and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost." Here and there on our battle fields, distant and near, the sound of abundance of rain is being heard; and we believe among many companies of God's people He is preparing afresh for these last days a "sharp threshing instrument having teeth," and that what God is saying to us through this Revival, and through the interpretation of that message in this pamphlet, is a word of the Lord for our day. May it be greatly used to produce revived lives, revived fellowships and revived churches.

My Calvary Road tells the personal side of the story—of one man's spiritual journey on the road to righteousness, learning what it means to be open to God's purpose. An evangelist who in his lifetime was well-known on both sides of the Atlantic, Hession recounts how revival came to his personal life and ministry. With utter frankness he tells how he was blessed by failure—his life a demonstration of the true grace of God.
