The Longest Way Home W D Mayberry

2022-02-12 In 1989 I had a road accident while I was coming home on leave to Canberra. This accident changed my life forever. It has impacted me in many ways both physically and mentally. I guess it could be called therapy to write a book about it, I am not sure. It was quite painful dredging up all those memories of the trauma I went through. Anyway, a long time in the pipeline, I have now finished this latest eBook called "The Longest Way Home".

Making It National Graeme Turner 2020-07-22

Making it National argues that we need to rethink the way national identity is constructed in Australia today. Graeme Turner takes a series of recent instances - the mythologising of Bond and the larrikin entrepreneurs, the Spycatcher trials, Maralinga and the Bicentenary - showing how popular images of national identity are used to serve specific rather than national interests.

'Graeme Turner's writing has a remarkable power to engage its readers with all the immediacy, vividness and drama of our very best journalism, while putting cultural theory to work in new and creative ways.' - Meaghan Morris

'Making it National could be to the 1990s what Richard White's Inventing Australia was to the 1980s.' - Tony Bennett, Institute for Cultural Policy Studies, Griffith University

What Will Be Worn Melissa Fagan 2018-09-01

Sometimes it seems the most invaluable stories can be found in the unlikeliest of corners. For all who know Brisbane, McWhirters, a once celebrated department store in Fortitude Valley, is an icon. For Melissa Fagan it is also the starting point for this remarkable exploration of her mother and grandmother's lives, and a poignant reminder of the ways in which retail stores and fashion have connected women's lives across decades. Behind the dusty shop counters of an Art Deco treasure, Fagan discovers both what has been lost and continues to shine.

Ultimately this tender exploration of self and family, so exquisitely written, speaks of the ways in which life so often surprises us and of how the legacies of others can truly enrich our own relationships and lives. 'I raced through What Will Be Worn. It's moving and alive, funny and tender. It is also a rigorous examination of the ways in which women shroud ourselves, figuratively and literally. I especially loved Melissa's portrait of her mother, "the lost princess of Brisbane". A very fine book.' — Susan Johnson, author of The Landing 'With delicacy, flair and an ever-questioning but never judgmental eye, Fagan performs beautifully the dance of writing history, slipping seamlessly back and forth between what is known and what must be imagined.' — Peggy Frew, author of Hope Farm 'It's rare to find a book that so warmly and intelligently takes on themes such as the ways in which fashion links women across generations, the glamour and downfall of the department store, and the bonds between mothers and daughters. Melissa Fagan's What Will Be Worn transcends the local with aplomb. It's a loving and searching portrait of what we inherit from our families. It reminds me of Edmund de Waal's The Hare with Amber Eyes and Helen Garner's investigative and self-questioning writing style.’ — Barry Scott, Co-publisher at Transit Lounge
