Handbook of Adolescent Transition Education for Youth with Disabilities Karrie A. Shogren 2020-05-26 Now in a thoroughly revised and updated second edition, this handbook provides a comprehensive resource for those who facilitate the complex transitions to adulthood for adolescents with disabilities. Building on the previous edition, the text includes recent advances in the field of adolescent transition education, with a focus on innovation in assessment, intervention, and supports for the effective transition from school to adult life. The second edition reflects the changing nature of the demands of transition education and adopts a "life design" approach. This critical resource is appropriate for researchers and graduate-level instructors in special and vocational education, in-service administrators and policy makers, and transition service providers.

Assessing Students with Special Needs James A. McLoughlin 2001 Appropriate for assessment courses in special education. This clear, comprehensive guide to the assessment of students with mild disabilities retains the hallmark of its previous editions by presenting a balanced coverage of formal and informal assessment. The text equips future teachers to understand all phases of the assessment process from helping them select the proper assessment tool to using the results to adapt instruction to improve education for special students.

Teaching Children to Read Douglas Ray Reutzel 2004 For Elementary Reading Methods courses. This comprehensive and balanced look at literacy practice has long been one of the most popular reading methods texts available. The text begins by introducing seven principles for comprehensive reading instruction, and then explains the theoretical foundations of teaching reading. Part I builds on those foundations with specific methods in Part II, and then in Part III it describes how to create a variety of learning centers, and how to plan developmentally appropriate reading curriculum for students in both K-3 and 4-8 classrooms, chapters 12 and 13 provide a continuum of knowledge by describing classroom organization and curriculum for grades 4-6 and 6-8.
