Treasury Board 1986 For regulation to be sensitive to the needs of Canadians it is critical that interested parties make government departments and agencies aware of their concerns about regulations before they become law. This plan provides the public with an early opportunity to participate in the regulatory process. It lists possible initiatives identified by departments and administrative or independent regulatory agencies giving a detailed description of each regulatory amendment with contact person. It includes a section giving a brief progress report on initiatives included in the previous plan.
