Splat, Boom, Pow! Valerie Cassel 2003 Splat--ouch--Boom--ouch--Pow! That hurts. Presenting work by 35 nationally and internationally recognized contemporary artists who have incorporated the imagery, technique, or style of the comics in their work, Splat Boom Pow! makes evident the shift from traditional literary narratives to a visual language of myth as seen in comic strips over the last 40 years. Taking an in-depth look at the current phenomenon of cartoon-referencing work, its connection to the pop art movement of the 1960s, and the social and cultural factors that have shaped our understanding of the comics as a form of popular communication, Splat Boom Pow! includes work by three generations of artists, among them Laylah Ali, Michael Ray Charles, Roy Lichtenstein, Takashi Murakami, Elizabeth Murray, Chris Ofili, Sigmar Polke, Peter Saul, Kenny Scharf, Jim Shaw and Andy Warhol.

Great Performances Larry Lewin 1998 This book presents an approach to developing performance assessments. It begins with four steps for "Info In" and moves to four "Info Out" modes through which students can make their content understanding explicit for evaluation purposes. The first chapter is an overview of performance assessment in the classroom. Chapter 2 discusses the "Info In" model and the key processes of reading, listening, manipulating, and viewing. Chapter 3 explores the first "Info Out" mode, visual representations. Chapters 4, 5, and 6 examine the three additional "Info Out" modes: writing; oral presentations; and large-scale substantive projects and performances. The final chapter summarizes strengths and weaknesses of classroom-based performance assessments. An appendix contains the "Oregon Writing Scoring Guide" for middle school. Making Portfolios, Products, and Performances

Meaningful and Manageable for Students and Teachers

Imogene Forte 1995 This book presents practical ways to make assessment of portfolios, products, and performances both a meaningful and manageable process. Designed in a clear, easy-to-follow format, each section presents an informative view of the topic, provides a variety of high-interest activities, and offers complete student directions for involving and informing parents. Since communication is essential to every facet of this means of evaluation, students not only participate in decision-making but are also strongly encouraged to take ownership of and develop an increasing responsibility for their work. The pull-out graphic organizer offers creative, task-oriented ideas for integrating content instruction and appraising student understanding. -- Back cover. The pull-out graphic organizer was developed to show how five major curricular and instructional models or concepts can interface with one another for designing high-quality lesson plans, interdisciplinary units, cooperative learning tasks, thinking skills exercises, and assessment programs. Specifically, references are made in each of the following categories: Gardner's Multiple Intelligences, Bloom's and Williams' Taxonomies of Action Verbs and Student Behaviors, Suggested Student Product and Performances Ideas, Optional Assessment Formats, and Sample Curriculum Outcomes. -- Back of cover.
