Writing on the Edge 1991

The Shorthand Writer: a Complete Guide to the Commercial, Professional, and Other Uses of Shorthand Thomas Allen Reed 1892

Paragraphs and Essays Lee Brandon 1994 This new edition of an enduring textbook ... offers students instruction in the essential forms and purposes of writing, with a strong emphasis on using the writing process. And because writing and reading are so closely related, each chapter presents, through The Reading Connection, examples of paragraphs and essays written by professionals and students as models and material to inspire students' own writing. -Back cover.

Century Readings in the English Essay Louis Wann 1926

The Longman Writer Judith Nadell 2005-04 One of the most successful writing texts on the market, this "all-in-one" rhetoric and reader contains everything students need for courses in freshman composition. Created by the authors of the best-selling Longman Reader, the text draws on decades of teaching experience to integrate the best of the "product" and "process" approaches to writing. Its particular strengths include an emphasis on the reading-writing connection, a focus on invention and revision, more attention to the fact that patterns blend in actual writing, and an abundance of class-tested activities and assignments-more than 350 in all.

The Active Reader for Writers Richard Panman 2004-03 The Active Reader for Writers is a textbook for students in high school and first-year college freshman. This reader/writing text contains thirty absorbing selections from across content areas. Written by well-known authors, these models are used to teach reading and writing strategies. A perfect student text for the new SAT writing exam, and for first-year college writing courses.

Milestones C: Student Edition Neil Anderson 2008-03 Using a unique embedded assessment plan along with a balanced blend of literature and content readings, Milestones ensures that students are mastering skills and standards before being introduced to new skills and standards. Features imbedded assessment, academic vocabulary instruction, and differentiated instruction.

The New World Reader Gilbert H. Muller 2005 This multicultural, thematic reader takes on thought-provoking, global issues. The New World Reader presents first-year writing students with 66 timely essays by established writers on the most significant issues of the post-September 11th world. Working with recently published selections from well-known writers, students will have the opportunity to consider such strategic questions as the changing face of America, the challenges and consequences of globalization, the just response to terror, the international digital revolution, and the fate of the global environment. Challenged by notable contemporary thinkers and writers, students will be encouraged--individually and as members of a community--to come to grips with a world that is now subject to complex transformations.
