Jewish Philosophers and Jewish Philosophy Emil L. Fackenheim 1996 If, in content and in method, philosophy and religion conflict, can there be a Jewish philosophy? What makes a Jewish thinker a philosopher? Emil L. Fackenheim confronts these questions in a profound and insightful series of essays on the great Jewish thinkers from Maimonides through Hermann Cohen, Martin Buber, Franz Rosenzweig, and Leo Strauss. Fackenheim also contemplates the task of Jewish philosophy after the Holocaust. While providing access to key Jewish thinkers of the past, this volume highlights the exciting achievements of one of today's most creative and most important Jewish philosophers.

This exploration of the Pennsylvania experience reveals how democracy arose in America and how it came to accommodate capitalism.

"If You Love Me, You Will Do My Will": The Stranger-Than-Fiction Saga of a Trappist Monk, a Texas Widow, and Her Half-Billion-Dollar Fortune Stephen G. Michaud 1990-03-01 "A bizarre story—full of intrigue and machinations over a half-billion dollar fortune with a cast of characters that might have been invented by Balzac." —Richard Lindsey, author of The Falcon and the Snowman This is a story of a vast cattle and oil fortune left hanging by the thread of a widow's dying wish; a story of prodigious egos and ambitions competing for the fortune before the widow was even buried; a story about a legal battle that has lasted a quarter-century and has swept like a range fire from dusty cow-town courtrooms to the marble halls of the Vatican, pitting captains of industry against princes of the Church. And if it had happened anywhere other than Texas, you probably wouldn't believe a word of it. Sarita Kenedy East was the aging, melancholy mistress of a cattle kingdom as big as Rhode Island: La Parra, 400,000 acres of South Texas rangeland next door to the fabled King Ranch. She was the last Kenedy. And although she cherished the huge ranch founded by her grandfather, her life there oppressed her. Mrs. East's only solace was in her memories, her abiding Catholic faith, and her nightly tumblers of scotch. In 1948 Sarita received a surprise caller, a young and charismatic Trappist monk, Brother Leo—the alleged Svengali of this saga—who had been sent out from his monastery in New England to scout potential sites for new Trappist monasteries...and to find rich Catholic donors to pay for them. In time he discovered what Sarita herself did not know, that under her lands lay an ocean of oil worth hundreds of millions of dollars. Brother Leo had a gift for persuasion. He became the lonely widow's spiritual counselor, and before she died she made him trustee of a charitable foundation that he says was meant to help the poor of Latin America. But Brother Leo ran into some formidable opposition: Sarita's vengeful relatives in Texas, Fortune 500 industrialist J. Peter Grace, and the Catholic Church itself all had other plans for the giant estate. "If You Love Me You Will Do My Will," based upon two decades of investigative reporting and interviews with almost every major character, details this extravagant drama, an epic even by Texas standards. Abby's Magic Sketchbook: Part III □□Yueli 2026-04-30 Part III: Preface To help DANIEL participate in the [Children's Architecture Game Competition], ABBY's friends readily form the "team off-the-wall" with DANIEL at its center. Their submission successfully passes the preliminary round, earning them a chance to compete in the live broadcast. The problem arises when DAD LEO—a game developer—is appointed as the MC for the event. To secure DANIEL's participation, ABBY eventually reveals the "Magic Mural," the secret place where she used to meet ELOHIM alone. In the process, MINWOO, who dreams of becoming a Major League baseball player, unexpectedly receives an extraordinary baseball bat by sheer luck, and ELOHIM signs it with "Jx." Summer vacation finally begins, and the children give up their break to gather at HENRY's workshop to prepare for the competition. Because DANIEL follows ABBY every day, they end up caught in MOM YUMI's "radar," leading the children to devise an absurd "007-style mission" to ensure DANIEL's smooth participation. Although ABBY revealed the Magic Mural to seek ELOHIM's help and claimed to have a good idea, her plan to make LEO step down as MC ultimately fails. Instead, an idea emerges to have DANIEL compete wearing a mask, and with a cartoon costume prepared by MINWOO, he enters the competition. As the competition begins, the children finally fulfill their wish by performing on stage with a pianist they have long admired, together with the Sketchbook animals. Through this process, they finally share the secret of the Sketchbook with DAD LEO, and the team off-the-wall wins the competition. DANIEL takes a step out of the dark inner world in which he had confined himself within the autism spectrum and ultimately overcomes his language difficulties. At last, ABBY, her friends, and the animals board another gift from ELOHIM—the "Flying Ship"—and experience the wonder of traveling directly through the Sky Garden inside the Magic Sketchbook. On Thanksgiving, ABBY's art teacher, Artist PARK KANGWOO, and her favorite Qingdao OPPA are invited. PARK KANGWOO falls in love at first sight with ABBY's maternal grandmother, NAMI, fulfilling another of ABBY's long-held wishes—the hope of gaining a grandfather. With the Sketchbook animals and ELOHIM appearing on the scene, the party turns into a full festival. In the upcoming [Abby's Magic Sketchbook 2], a sudden electrical fire brings a trial as ABBY loses the Sketchbook she cherished most. A journey to recover it amid deep loss—and an even more fantastic story that lies beyond—awaits.
