Educating for Business, Public Service and the Social Sciences Peter Groenewegen 2009-09-11
Tertiary economics and business education started early in Australia but was not organised on a faculty basis until the 20th century.

Commerce and business teaching at Sydney University began in 1906, and from 1920 was taught in the Faculty of Economics, together with public administration and accounting. Its progress for the next 80 years is chronicled in this comprehensive history of the Faculty of Economics.

The Market for Political Economy Alon Kadish 1993-07-29 Why did political economy become pre-eminent in the emergence and development of the social sciences? From a relatively early stage in its development political economy was accepted as a legitimate, if minor, part of a general liberal education. However, economic science did not become firmly rooted in the academic curriculum of the modern English
