Sports Sponsorship 2011-12-06 Sports Sponsorship: A Professional's Guide offers long overdue advice on every aspect of the tough and often daunting task of seeking sports sponsorship. Written by one of international sport's most experienced and successful sponsorship sales exponents, the book is intended for sponsorship seekers at all levels, from grass roots sport up to the highest echelons of professional sports organizations. Sports Sponsorship: A Professional's Guide offers long overdue advice on every aspect of the tough and often daunting task of seeking sports sponsorship. Written by one of international sport's most experienced and successful sponsorship sales exponents, the book is intended for sponsorship seekers at all levels, from grass roots sport up to the highest echelons of professional sports organizations. Brian Sims has been involved in motor sports from Formula Ford through to Formula 1, been the marketing director of two Formula 1 teams and been involved in US Indycar Racing with Lola, and brought companies such as FedEx, Marconi and Gillette into Formula One when marketing director of the Benetton F1 Team. Brian is now on the Advisory Board of Oxford Brookes University, a Guest Lecturer for the World Academy of Sport and is also working with a talented young British racing driver competing in the 2013 European F3 Championship. The advice and guidance contained in Sports Sponsorship is relevant to many professional sports and has several case studies illustrating how to identify, present and win support from potential partners, it is a must read for individuals, teams or organizations seeking to secure sponsorship in an ever competitive world.

You're Better Than They Think You Are Sir Rod Aldridge 2018-11-22 The author reveals his journey to success. His account of overcoming all obstacles is one that demonstrates that with an inner determination to succeed combined with positive opportunism, anything is possible. Wishing to support young people from struggling communities much like his own childhood neighbourhood, Rod's journey led him to help address ineffective education in this country. His story ends with his going back to the beginning, using his skills and experience to create the Aldridge Foundation and, through his academy schools, help 10,000 students nationwide to reach their full entrepreneurial potential.

What a Life Keith Weber 2020-11-23 Keith Weber recalls a lifetime of being an entrepreneur and living life to the fullest during his forty-five years in New Zealand and now forty years in Australia in this memoir. He grew up with his uncle and aunt, but he loved them as though they were his parents. When his mother remarried, he was told he could go live with her and his stepfather, but he decided to stay put. He enjoyed being a Boy Scout, went to Sunday School, loved Rugby Union, and observed with interest the happenings surrounding World War II. But growing up, he also made some wrong choices and faced some hard times. As he got older and entered the workforce, he learned that truth of sayings such as, "God works in mysterious ways" and "Tough Times Never Last -But Tough People Do!" In sharing his experiences, he provides lessons for those who want to start their own business, travel, and meantime enjoy life.

Ambush Marketing & the Mega-Event Monopoly

Andre M. Louw 2012-06-06 This book undertakes a critical examination of commercial rights to sports mega-events (focusing on sponsorship), the exclusivity of such rights and the legal implications of the modern mega-event sponsorship model. It examines ambush marketing of events and the law's treatment of ambushing (specifically in the form of sui generis event legislation) in a review of 10 major jurisdictions selected on the basis of the importance of the events they are to host in the near future or have hosted recently, and the relevant domestic legislation. It critically examines the legitimacy of such commercial rights protection by means of the use of laws in the context of accepted principles of intellectual property law, competition law and human rights law. Specifically, it questions the legitimacy of the creation of statutory 'association rights' to mega-events, and considers potential future developments in respect of the law's treatment of mega-event commercialisation. Valuable for practitioners and academics (in the fields of sportslaw/sponsorship/marketing/intellectual property law); sports administrators (sports governing bodies); corporate sponsors of sports and other events; potential mega-event host governments and law-makers; civil rights organisations.
