CHARACTER definition: 1. the particular combination of qualities in someone or something that makes them or it different.... Learn more. noun The moral qualities assigned to a person by repute; the estimate attached to an individual by the community in which he lives; good or bad reputation, standing: as, a character for veracity or mendacity. Consistent with someone's general character or behavior: behavior that was totally in character. If something is in character with something else, it has the same qualities or characteristics as something else. When Martin Luther King, Jr. said he looked forward to the day when all Americans would be judged solely "by the content of their character," he was talking about a person's essential qualities. If you say that someone has character, you mean that they have the ability to deal effectively with difficult, unpleasant, or dangerous situations. A character is someone who appears in a story, whether the story is fiction or nonfiction. It can also be used to refer to a role in a play or film that an actor plays, as in Tony's character in the play doesn't ... character applies to the aggregate of moral qualities by which a person is judged apart from intelligence, competence, or special talents. in harmony with one's personal character or disposition: Such behavior is not in character for him. in accordance with the role or personality assumed in a performance: an actor in character.
